

Supplementary Fig. 1. (A) A schematic diagram showing the epoch durations. (B) The turn frequency was computed for each epoch as the number of turns divided by the epoch duration, and the peak turn frequency was the mean of the highest three turn frequencies for all the epochs obtained in each muscle.