

Supplementary Fig. 1. Optic disc atrophy. (A) Fundus photography reveals temporal pallor of the optic discs in both eyes (indicated by white arrows). (B) Optical coherence tomography reveals mild thinning of the retinal nerve fiber layer (RNFL) and more severe involvement of the papillomacular bundle (indicated by black arrows) in both eyes. NAS, nasal; INF, inferior; TMP, temporal; SUP, superior; OD, right; OS, left.